Services for Children

Welcome!

The 2004 Georgia Association of Homes and Services for Children Annual Conference is filled with energizing, thought provoking, and revitalizing workshops for the array of professionals that care for children.

The year's conference, "Setting the Stage: Kids and Family Front and Center" takes an in-depth look at the tools needed to continue providing quality strength-based services with positive outcomes in an ever-changing environment. There is a workshop here for everyone - from foster parents to CEOs!

Enjoy the beautiful conference location... you deserve it! Take time for an early morning stroll on the beach to watch the sun coming up. Enjoy what Hilton Head has to offer, stay an extra day and shop, golf, swim...

The GAHSC conference committee and GAHSC staff member Adriel Jones have done an excellent job in preparing for this conference. We also want to thank all of the sponsors who made this year's conference possible. Finally, take time to visit the exhibitor's booths as a way of telling them thanks for supporting GAHSC.

Now go get busy networking, relaxing, and getting rejuvenated!
